The world's foremost executive recruiting firm and global talent provider, Korn Ferry, turned to Pointivity to migrate from an on-premise Microsoft Exchange infrastructure to Microsoft Office 365.

Korn Ferry realized that having an on-premise Microsoft Exchange infrastructure was holding them back. They wanted to upgrade their Exchange for employees, who work around the globe in many different time zones and determined Office 365 was a good solution. The firm had created its users and assigned licenses but struggled with the migration of 10,500-plus mailboxes.

Pointivity broke the project into multiple phases to ensure a seamless transition from onsite Exchange/Outlook to Office 365, with the first phase being Korn Ferry's Hay Group subsidiary users. The remaining employees were segregated by region and time zone as they were spread across Asia Pacific, South America, North America and Europe.

Pointivity's team coordinated scheduling with Korn Ferry IT and worked around the clock to successfully migrate the mailboxes with little to no disruption for users. Korn Ferry users were pleased with the quick and painless transition.
